

Existing law generally authorizes police juries to create sewerage districts composed of all of the territory outside the corporate limits of municipalities. Generally requires the police jury to appoint at least three but no more than five property taxpayers residing within the district as the board of supervisors of the district.

Existing law provides that the parish governing authority may pay board members a per diem not to exceed $60 for attending board meetings for a maximum of 24 meetings a year and for each emergency meeting for a maximum of 12 emergency meetings a year. Requires that per diem be paid out of the district funds in the hands of the treasurer. Provides exceptions.

New law authorizes the governing authority of Tangipahoa Parish to pay members of the governing board of the Tangipahoa Parish Sewerage District No. 1 a per diem not to exceed $150 for attending board meetings for a maximum of 24 regular meetings a year and for a maximum of 12 special meetings a year.

Effective July 1, 2012.
